

Leadership Readiness Assessment

Use this self-assessment as the basis for a conversation among leadership to determine your practice's level of readiness for launching a PFAC. Consider to what degree the following statements are true for your practice.

	1 Strongly agree	2 Somew hat agree	3 Neutral	4 Somewhat disagree	5 Strongly disagree
1. At all levels of staff in our practice, we believe that our patients' and families' perspectives are as important as our own when it comes to how our practice is run.
2. We believe that a PFAC allows us to access patients' and families' perspectives in a way that no other feedback process can.
3. We have staff within the practice excited about family leadership and willing to contribute effort.
4. We are able to commit sufficient and realistic financial and personnel resources to this project.
5. We have patients who have wanted to provide us with feedback and ideas but have not had a good forum for doing so.
6. We are open to having interested patients with a variety of viewpoints participate, including those of varying cultural backgrounds.
